

THANK YOU NORTH HILLS!!!!

On December 26, 2004, a giant tsunami in the Indian Ocean, killed over 300,000 people and devastated many families. The Peelagoda Sumanajothi Vidyalaya School in Unawatuna, Sri Lanka was destroyed by the tsunami. The students, parents, teachers & staff at NHP raised funds in 2005-06 and contributed towards rebuilding this school, in a project through the Herath Foundation in Sri Lanka.

Given below are excerpts of the letter acknowledging receipt of the funds in 2006, with gratitude for the donation. You will be happy to know that the school is now complete and serves children in surrounding villages.

THANK YOU NHP!!

School rebuilding project

On behalf of all Sri Lankans we would like to thank you, the students, staff and parents of North Hills School in Irving, TX for your generous help for the Tsunami victims. We are deeply moved by your compassionate thoughtfulness and generous spirit at a time of great grief for our nation. We cannot thank you enough.

On March 3, 2006 we have received your donation of US $ 3,312.00. We deeply appreciate your contribution.

Please convey our gratitude to all your friends and families for their generosity and sponsorship. The success of the people you help is also your success. Thank you again for the love you have extended to our people. It is a great honor to know you and pass on your help.

Susantha Herath, PhD - President, Herath Foundation

Ground-breaking for the school

Children in front of the school